Objective	The purpose of the seminar is to introduce to the most important conceptual approaches of research as well as to explore and formulate the framework for the analysis of the topic.
Brief Report	Mangalmai Institute of Engineering and Technology, Greater Noida organized a Seminar on "Research Methodology" for the faculty members and the students of MIET on 08-04-2021 at 10:00 am. The program was started at 10:00 am on 8th April, 21 with the welcome of our speaker Dr. Gaurav Singh, Associate Professor, MIET by Dr. Yashpal Singh (Director, MIET) & by HoD, Computer Science & Engineering. He stated that research methodology refers to the practical "how: of any given piece of research. More specially, it's about how a researcher systematically designs a study to ensure valid and reliable results that address the research aim and objectives. There are different types of methodologies such as qualitative, quantitative, mixed, distinguished by whether they focus on words or numbers. Honorable Chairman sir and Vice chairman sir thanked all the participants for actively involving in the seminar. The seminar then came to an end and needless to say, it had been a grand success.
Outcome	At the end of the program, participants learned how to choose methods materials, scientific tools and techniques relevant to the solution of the problem.

MEASURES

- CLOSING OF SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES - India, most governments have decided to temporarily close the schools to reduce the impact of Covid-19. Later it was required for a few weeks, which increased the number of affected rates and their school gaps.
- Postponement of exam year ends - Due to covid many exams including JEE, NEET & UPSC and 12 th board were postponed. A hardship was created for students. It is painful for both parents and students.
- Online mode - The educational contents had better students and requires extra of books of material to rapidly adapt to online learning. The impact of this - are the arrangements required to make it work - such as permanently change how education is delivered.

Objective	To make everyone about the intellectual property rights.
Brief Report	Mangalmai Institute of Engineering and Technology, Greater Noida organized a seminar on "Intellectual property rights" for the faculty members and the students of MIET on 5-10-2020 at 10:00am. The program was started at 10:00 am on 5th October, 20 with the welcome of our speaker Dr. Komal Kumar Gaur, Professor, MIET by Dr. Yashpal Singh (Director, MIET) & by HoD, Computer Science & Engineering. Dr. Komal Kumar Gaur cleared what is meant by "Intellectual Property Rights". He stated that ideas which are abstract representation of something must be protected once they have been materialized as a result of human intellectual effort. IPR is covering patents, copyrights, trademark, industrial designs, geographical indications, protection of layout design of integrated circuits and protection of undisclosed information and protection of new information. IPR refers to monopoly protection for creative works such as writing (copyright), inventions (patents), processes (trade secrets) and identifiers (trademarks). Like any evolving concept, IPR too has its fair share of criticism and controversies, because it involves not just economics but ethics and human rights as well.
