| Brief Report     | Student welfare committee of Mangalmay Institute of Engineering and Technology has organized a Session on Armed Forces Day' on May 17, 2024 with an objective to raise awareness about the importance of defence services and security of the country. The Program commenced with a small inauguration attended by esteemed Guest, Faculty Members and Students. Today's eminent Guest Prof. Harish Bhatia, Director HR and Operations, MGI as well as retired from Indian Air force, after serving 25 years. He discussed on the importance of armed forces and paramilitary forces. He also talked about 1971 war and costal guards. He emphasised Paramvir Chakra and said "Paramvir Chakra is the supreme wheel of bravery." According to him the armed forces are like your mother always looking out for the security of the civilians. Prof. Bhatia also discussed about the ranks for armed forces, their lifestyle and emergency landing of the planes. This session was attended by all faculty members of MIET including the Director, MIET. Dr. Chetan Khemraj, HOD, MIET, Dr. Sanjay Pachauri and Coordinator, MIET, Dr. Garima Srivastava. The event was coordinated by Dr. Dharam Singh and Dr. Pragati Sinha and the anchor was Kritika Ojha. Around 60 students attended the session. The session was encouraging and inspiring for the students. Conclusion: Armed Forces Day sessions often foster a greater sense of appreciation and respect among students for the sacrifices made by military personnel and their families. These events contribute a sense of national unity by highlighting the importance of collective defence and citizenship responsibilities. Colleges and universities may use these sessions to promote education about national security issues and to facilitate collaboration between academic institutions and the armed |
